Welcome to the winning team

We are a true heritage brand, athleisureing around since 1892.
That's more than 130 years of life experience.

Brand story

Patrice Benéteau was a 19th-century shoemaker in the little French town Pouzauges. One day, Patrice decided to make shoes for the local soccer team. He did such a fine job that the word spread fast and other teams came knocking at his door. So on a sunny day in 1892, Patrice created Patrick. Not much later he was also producing Patrick shoes & apparel for basketball, cricket, athletics and leisure.

In the 1930s, Patrick introduced its famous two stripes to technically strengthen the shoes. Patrick was one of the pioneers to use this widely copied technique. Later, the striping became mainly a matter of design, but the two Patrick stripes were there to stay.

As from the 1950s, Patrick sponsored many great legends in soccer, rugby, cycling and other sports: Kevin Keegan, Michel Platini, ... Or Jacques Anquetil and Bernard Hinault, who both won the Tour de France five times. Still, Patrice would have easily kept his cool. That's what you get when you've been around more than 130 years.

New design

We redesigned our sports leggings by replacing the coral accents with reflective ones at the side of the leg. The result? A sportier look that is also easier to combine with other collections.

Get noticed

Thanks to the fluorescent accents in the high-performance collection, you will be noticed on and off the field. They highlight your exceptional performances and allow you to move in style.

Prints and accents

We gave the print around the zipper a more streamlined and natural shape and added a larger color accent at the thumbholes. To make the thumbholes more comfortable, we also eliminated the rib with a softer fabric.

Functionalities

We also added a pocket in the inside of our sports leggings to store your keys, cards and phone. That way, you can enjoy your workout while carrying your valuables close to you.

Mesh inserts

We added an extra mesh insert in the bottom of the short for optimal freedom of movement during each exercise.

Thanks to its massive success, we have upgraded our HIGH-PERFORMANCE collection!

Sublimation matters

When you choose sublimation, you choose so much more than a new club outfit.

Sublimation is personalization. It makes sure your teamwear is customized to your club's needs, matches your personality and makes your sports heart beat faster.

Sublimation is empowerment. It makes you wear your club outfit with pride, with passion and with confidence.

Sublimation is standing out. It distinguishes your team from all other clubs, ensures that they are being noticed and highlights exceptional performances.

Sublimation is pushing your limits. It makes sure nothing can stop you, fuels strong performances and supports your team in reaching the top.

Sublimation is being part of a team.

The winning team.
